

Music Education Hubs (Sept 2019)

There is a national network of 'Music Hubs' funded by Arts Council England as part of the National Plan for Music education. These Hubs act to 'signpost' people to the various musical activities and resources available in their local area (mainly for children and young adults). It is interesting to visit the Hub websites and explore the links to the various musical bodies and activities.

Peterborough Music Education Hub

Peterborough Music Hub states their aim is to make musical education accessible to all young people and the Hub is now active in several areas such as assisting in providing 'first access' musical instrument teaching in nearly all Peterborough Primary schools, and running the new Peterborough Centre for Young Musicians (PCYM) in conjunction with the Guildhall School of Music and Drama. Visit their website to find out about other activities they organize and promote at <http://peterboroughmusichub.org.uk>

Cambridgeshire Music Partnership (Music Education Hub)

The home page of the Hub is <https://www.mushcambs.org.uk/>. This Hub has a number of partners with the lead partner being Cambridgeshire Music (www.cambridgeshiremusic.org).

Lincolnshire Music Education Hub

This Hub is now a part of MEHEM - a consortium of Music Hubs known as Music Education Hubs East Midlands (<https://www.mehem.org/about-us/lincolnshire-music-education-hub/lincolnshire-music-education-hub.aspx>). The lead partner for the hub is Lincolnshire Music Service which runs various Lincolnshire County Youth ensembles as well as music centres throughout Lincolnshire.
